

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSION

A. Conclusion

Based on the analysis carried out by the writer, all the movie series Harry Potter, it can be concluded that the character of Prof. McGonagall is depicted as a feminist character. In the Harry Potter film, not all women have feminist characters, some also have weak characters and are submissive to leaders like Prof. Trawlenny and Cho Chang.

The writer carries out an analysis of the feminist character of the character Prof. McGonagall based on the intrinsic elements, liberal feminism characterization of Prof. Mc Gonagall and how Prof Mc Gonagall breaks the woman stereotypes. In the Harry Potter film the character Prof. McGonagall doesn't appear often but her appearance always has an influence on the storyline.

In all the Harry Potter movie series, intrinsic elements influence the character depiction of Prof. McGonagall. Dialogue from Prof. McGonagall can strengthen and even influence the storyline. The conflict that occurs in each series which the conflict in the Hogwarts war proves that the role of Prof. McGonagall is very influential in the story. When the Hogwarts lost Prof. Dumbledore and no one else could lead and protect the citizens of Hogwarts. Prof. McGonagall plays a big role in protecting Hogwarts.

The representation of liberal feminist values is clearly seen in the characterization of Prof. Mc Gonagal. The strong aura possessed by Prof. McGonagall made herself very respected by all the residents of Hogwarts. Her intelligence means she has many skills that not all wizards have. However, she not only has a strong character her sense of empathy for other people is very high and she always defends the weak who are oppressed.

Based on movie analysis of Prof Mc Gonagall's characteristics that support her to break the woman stereotypes. In this movie dialogues, Prof. Mc Gonagall described as a strong woman, smart, brave, caring, and beautiful. The researcher found that Prof. Mc Gonagall struggles to break the women stereotypes by showing her power, capability, independence, and refusing woman standard to deconstruct the stereotypes of women as the other.

B. Suggestion

In connection with the research findings above, the writer presents some suggestion based on the result of the research that has been obtained. The suggestion to several parties are presented as follows:

- a. For the other researchers

The writer hopes to have given useful information about feminist characters especially based on intrinsic elements, liberal feminism and how to break the women stereotypes.

b. For the readers

By reading this research the readers can acquire more knowledge about feminist characters. The writer also hopes the readers will be interested in literary works such as film, novel, poem, etc.

c. For the University

The writer hopes the university library can provide more references about feminist, liberal feminism and women stereotypes in the future it can help others find data sources and references for their
